

School Visit Reviews:

“Thank you so much for coming to our school. The theme of your book tied in perfectly with our curriculum as we share the Christmas story with our preschoolers during this month. We did a couple of your suggested activities to get us ready for your visit and the children just loved having a real author come to our school. Your book is absolutely beautiful and staff and students alike were caught up in the moment of Jesus’ birth. I think all the mothers in the room shed a quiet tear as they connected with Mary. We look forward to more visits in the future.”

~ Leanne Stolpe, Director, Providence Christian Preschool

“Although we have many versions of the Christmas story for children, Jeannine Norris’ retelling in verse is especially poignant. This book is a perfect read- aloud to children from preschool to Grade 1. Second and third graders will enjoy reading the text themselves. Tonight You Are My Baby is a gift waiting to be unwrapped and would make a wonderful addition to any family’s Christmas collection.

~ Josephine Bachi, Library Media Specialist, Holy Family School

“Our school invited Jeannine to participate in a Christmas program that involved families. It was very touching to see parents, grandparents and children sitting with their arms around each other as Jeannine read of a mother’s love for her baby. It added another layer of connection to the Christmas story for the adults involved. Children already love the story of Baby Jesus, but Tonight You Are My Baby drew the parents in a new way.”

~ Marcia Hartman, Director, Fairview Christian Academy

“Our first and second graders were so excited to meet a real author! They especially loved asking Mrs. Norris about the life of an author. We look forward to future books!”

~ Michele Zurek, First Grade Teacher, St. Basil’s The Great

“Your visit to the school was such a joy for children and teachers. Everyone had such positive things to say about your presentations. The children keep asking when your next book will come out – they are very excited about that one. Thanks again for spending time with us.”

~ Jessica Cressman, Third Grade Teacher, Gwynedd-Mercy Academy
